

WHO Collaboration Center for Health Systems and Public Health

Work plan for 4 years

TORs (Terms of reference)

TOR 1 To promote the implementation of the European Action Plan for Strengthening Public Health Services and Capacity by leading WHO working group on Health promotion, participating in the collaborative research, collating, disseminating and promoting application of research results in countries of WHO European Region

TOR 2 To facilitate and coordinate collaborative activities on the implementation of the European Action Plan for Strengthening Public Health Services and Capacity in the public health thematic network of Russian speaking countries

TOR 3 To support WHO efforts to strengthen public health workforce in Russian speaking countries of the European region

| | |
|--|---|
| Activity title | By leading WHO working group on Health promotion, to participate in the collaborative research and promote application of research results in countries of WHO European Region |
| Link to TOR | TOR1 |
| Name(s) of responsible staff at the institution | Yulia Mikhaylova, 1st Deputy Director |
| Activity Type | Implementation of WHO programs and activities at country level |
| Description of the activity and how it is implemented | To lead the coordination of WHO expert working group and processes to lead in integrated response on health promotion for the WHO European Region. Develop with WHO the ToR, Roadmap, Membership list and host Meetings of working group on Health Promotion. In collaboration with WHO, developing a public health summary, tools and publications in collaboration with WHO on approaches and models for integrated public health service delivery for Health Promotion, drawing on experience from Russian speaking countries and piloting and improving such materials The working group is part of implementation process for the European Action Plan for PH. Each working group has set of Terms of Reference, including continued coordination and |

| | |
|--|--|
| | strategic advice from the WHO. The working group lead role is to organize the WG process and to report to the EAP steering group, also coordinated by the WHO. |
| Expected deliverables | ToR, Roadmap and Membership list agree. Tools for integrated Public Health service delivery shared across the region, for supporting Health Promotion approaches Established tools for the implementation of Health Promotion approaches in Russian speaking countries (3.2.2) |
| Connected WHO task | OWER 3.1 Advocacy and support provided to increase political, financial and technical commitment in Member States in order to tackle chronic non-communicable diseases, mental and behavioral disorders, violence, injuries and disabilities together with visual impairment, including blindness. |
| Name(s) of funding sources: (incl. amounts, if specified) | FRIHOI of MoH of the RF (Federal budgeting), MoH of the RF, joint projects |
| Activity timeframe (incl. key milestones, if applicable) | Ongoing throughout the period |

| | |
|--|---|
| Activity title | To collate, translate and disseminate evidence based WHO publications and tools to support the delivery of Health Promotion approaches, including action to address social determinants and health inequity |
| Link to TOR | TOR1 |
| Name(s) of responsible staff at the institution | T.Kaygorodova, Head of International Scientific-Health Information Department |
| Activity Type | Information dissemination |

| | |
|--|--|
| | |
| Description of the activity and how it is implemented | With technical support from WHO, a list and collate evidence-based publications available in English and prepared for translation into Russian. Translation and dissemination of the Russian speaking countries will be implemented according to capability. |
| Expected deliverables | Capacity building activities will be provided with relevant WHO publications translated into Russian |
| Connected WHO task | OWER 3.6 Guidance and support provided to Member States to improve the ability of their health and social systems to prevent and manage chronic noncommunicable diseases, mental and behavioral disorders, violence, injuries and disabilities together with visual impairment, including blindness. |
| Name(s) of funding sources: (incl. amounts, if specified) | FRIHOI of MoH of the RF (Federal budgeting), MoH of the RF, joint projects |
| Activity timeframe (incl. key milestones, if applicable) | Ongoing throughout the period |

| | |
|--|---|
| Activity title | With the guidance of WHO, facilitate the strengthening of collaborative approaches to address common public health challenges across the Russian speaking countries |
| Link to TOR | TOR2 |
| Name(s) of responsible staff at the institution | A.Korotkova, Deputy director in international affairs |
| Activity Type | Others |

| | |
|--|--|
| Description of the activity and how it is implemented | Public Health priorities identified collectively by the Russian speaking Forum will be the main focus of public health capacity building events and tools taken forward by the Collaborating centre via the PH Forum. The Forum will be established to improve cross-country dialogue and experience sharing to strengthen public health capacity. |
| Expected deliverables | Capacity building events and approaches to facilitate sharing of information for public health will be organized with Russian speaking countries |
| Connected WHO task | OWER 3.6 Guidance and support provided to Member States to improve the ability of their health and social systems to prevent and manage chronic noncommunicable diseases, mental and behavioral disorders, violence, injuries and disabilities together with visual impairment, including blindness. |
| Name(s) of funding sources: (incl. amounts, if specified) | FRIHOI of MoH of the RF (Federal budgeting), MoH of the RF, joint projects |
| Activity timeframe (incl. key milestones, if applicable) | Ongoing throughout the period |

| | |
|--|---|
| Activity title | To strengthen public health workforce in Russian speaking countries of the European region by conduct capacity building workshops for decision-makers |
| Link to TOR | TOR3 |
| Name(s) of responsible staff at the institution | Yu.Mikhaylova, 1st Deputy Director |
| Activity Type | Training and education |

| | |
|--|---|
| Description of the activity and how it is implemented | To develop and conduct capacity building workshops for decision-makers in Russian speaking countries to support public health competencies of health professionals', related to the Essential Public Health Operations. Using the WHO materials and expertise to improve the professionals' training curricula to support health workforce development. The WHO will continue to advise on curricula and type of course participants to ensure alignment with WHO policy and strategy. |
| Expected deliverables | Capacity building workshops conducted for decision-makers in Russian speaking countries |
| Connected WHO task | OWER 10. 8 Health-workforce information and knowledge base strengthened, and country capacities for policy analysis, planning, implementation, information-sharing and research built up. |
| Name(s) of funding sources: (incl. amounts, if specified) | FRIHOI of MoH of the RF (Federal budgeting), MoH of the RF, joint projects |
| Activity timeframe (incl. key milestones, if applicable) | Ongoing throughout the period |